The Royal Hymn:

God save our gracious Queen,
God save the Queen: Send her victorious, happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us; God save the queen.

Thy choicest gifts in store
On her be pleased to pour;
Long may she reign:
May she defend our laws
And ever give us cause
To sing with heart and voice,
God save the queen.

Welcome:

Introit: The Souls Of The Righteous S. Merchant (1883-1949)
The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and there shall no torment touch them. In the sight of the unwise, they seemed to die, but they are in peace. [Book of Wisdom III: 1,2]

We Hear the Word of God

First Lesson Isaiah 2: 4

Pg. 631 in O.T.

Unison Gospel: (leader and congregation) Matthew 5: 3-11 Pg. 4 in N.T.
Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. 'Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account.

Leader: This is the Gospel of our Lord

Congregation: Thanks be to God

Sermon: "Peacemaking"

The Honour Roll: Reading of the names of those who made the supreme sacrifice.
The honour roll of New St. James from the First and Second World wars.

We read in unison verses from the poem For the Fallen by Lawrence Binyon:

“They shall not grow old as we that are left grow old. Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning, we shall remember them.

But where our desires are and our hopes profound,
Felt as a well-spring that is hidden from sight,
To the innermost heart of their own land they are known
As the stars are known to the Night;

As the stars that shall be bright when we are dust,
Moving in marches upon the heavenly plain,
As the stars that are starry in the time of our darkness,
To the end, to the end, they remain.”

 The Placement of the Remembrance Wreath.

Sam Alexander Crozier served voluntarily from Ireland in the British Army. His father

Father - Lance Sargent Robert Samuel Crozier, MM

Brothers (listed eldest to youngest)

“In Flanders Fields”

L: In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

C: We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Leader and Congregation:

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

Lament: The Flowers of the Forest Piper: Pat Taylor

Sunday School Music Dona nobis pacem W.A. Mozart (1756-1791)
Dona nobis pacem – Grant us peace

Prayer for World Peace

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Anthem Sweet Are The Prayers Of A Friend P. Choplin (©2018)

Sweet are the prayers of a friend. How sweet are the prayers offered up by a friend, who call, calling up to heaven, calling “Lord, come down and bless again.” Friends pray for healing, they pray revealing the heavy burdens of our souls. They pray for courage, unfailing courage, asking God to make us whole. Friends pray through troubles, pray through struggles when life seems to fall apart. They pray us through grieving, always believing, God can heal the broken heart. Sweet are the prayers of a friend.

Slippery Sidewalks

It's that time of year again with the sidewalks getting slippery. Calling one and all to help look out for each other as we traverse those slick sidewalks, streets, lane-ways and parking lots on our way to and from worship. Let's be on the alert to help keep one another safe!

The Salvation Army will provide signage identifying New St. James as the host.

A sign-up sheet is posted in New St. James Hall for these times plus all other times throughout the 2018 Kettle season. If you have any questions, please contact Frank Walsh. Have fun, help others, and ring those bells!

Providing Hospitality to International Youth

One of the joys of international partnership is inviting young people from churches around the world to attend Canada Youth, the PCC's biannual youth conference. This past summer, sixteen youth from Ghana, Malawi, Taiwan and – for the first time, Lebanon, visited Presbyterian churches and experienced life in Canada. At Canada Youth, international and Canadian participants had an amazing inter-cultural experience, learning, sharing faith and having fun together. The international visitors participated in all activities with great enthusiasm! On a visit to the PCC's national office on their last day, they passionately thanked everyone for this life-changing opportunity. Through Presbyterians Sharing, we provide hospitality to young people - followers of Jesus who live in every corner of God's realm.

Presbyterians Sharing encourages young people
