We Hear the Word of God

Musical Offering *Ku Tetap Pegang Salib Kristus// believe in a hill called Mount Calvary
The Emmanuel Singers*

Hidup yang putus asa tak berarti Jalan degang tanpa harapan, Lala tangan yang berlobang paku. Menjamah jadi hidup baru. Dan kayu yang kasar mengubahkan. Jalan hidup yang penuh kegagalan. Kupuji Dia selama-lamanya. Sehab salib mengubah hidupku. Dan kuyakin darah Yesus yang suci. Sudah mengubah di kalvari.

Bila jaman berlalu dunia mendebru . Kutetap pegang salib itu Kuyakin bahwa Tuhan Kristus disalib itulah agung dan ajaib. Hidupku sungguh sungguh menjadi baru . Dan Kutetap pegang salib itu.

I believe that this life, with its great mysteries, surely someday will come to an end. But faith will conquer the darkness and death, and will lead at last to my friend. I believe that Christ who was slain on the cross, has the power to change lives today, for he changed me completely. A new life is mine, and that is why by the cross I will stay.

I believe in a hill called Mount Calvary. I believe whatever the cost and when time has surrendered and earth is no more I'll still cling to the old rugged cross.

A smiling servant of the Lord Gifts to Presbyterians Sharing support David and Anna Pandy-Szekeres as they serve with the Hungarian Reformed Church of Sub-Carpathian Ukraine. Through David's role as coordinator of external missions and mission outreach to Roma communities, David and Anna met Julius, who they describe as their "always-smiling colleague." Jailed for stealing food to provide for his family, Julius yearned for a connection with God. When he was released, he was eager to serve God in his community, and became a teacher in the Roma kindergarten in Nagydobrony as well as a Sunday worship leader. Anna shares, "We who witness Julius' life praise Jesus for the gift that has been given through this smiling servant to the Roma community of Nagydobrony." New St. James'
TWELVE KEYS GROUP
is forming and YOU are invited to participate and contribute.

On Saturday, April 20, about 30 of us came together for the workshop "Leadership Today", led by Dr. David Thompson and Kathy Smit. This was actually about the fifth leadership initiative in the last four years. All of the workshops were great, but nothing came of them. Many of us in business, government and education have experienced energizing retreats and workshops that produced no change. The result often is that the grassroots stop taking appeals for leadership and dynamic growth seriously.

Not this time. Enough training. It is time to build on what we have learned.

David and Kathy walked us through Kennon Callahan's book, Twelve Keys to an Effective Church. Callahan has decades of experience helping congregations increase their key strengths and add additional strengths in order to be even more effective mission servants in our world that is full of hopes and hurts. His message is based on our being Easter People, the people of the Open Tomb. Our best years are yet to come and it is up to us to discern what God has planned for us so that we will be able to hand New St. James on to the next generation stronger and more vital than when it was handed on to us.

The Twelve Keys Group will meet a few times in August to study several chapters of Callahan's book and to begin the planning process of preparing New St. James for worship and service well into the 21st century. We intend to have fun doing this work. If you would like to be part of this exciting time of introspection, analysis and dynamic growth, please contact John Stewart. All will be welcomed into the team. One last thought: the time of introspection and analysis will be short because we will move to action quickly. This will not be yet another exciting workshop that goes nowhere.
